

Kristen Alicia Lango

(920) 905-5257 | kristen.alicia.lango@gmail.com

KRISTENLANGO.COM

123 7th St. NE, Washington, DC

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/kristenlango/>

Analytically minded designer with a background in data visualization, cartography, and editorial design. Perpetually curious artist with a knack for data, and a desire to bring creativity to your content.

Experience

The National Committee for an Effective Congress, Washington, D.C.

Analyst

08/10/19– Present

- Handle and parse election data, and analyze results in coordination with changing precinct geographies for future election targeting and prediction
-

The American Association for Justice, Washington, D.C.

Editorial Assistant

12/21/17– 08/09/19

- Edited content in InDesign, Photoshop, and the Adobe Suite for online and print media, coded and created Trial News, a bi-weekly email newsletter, and published new online content with HTML in Drupal
- Provided data configuration of BPA brand reporting bi-annually on all subscriber data, analyzing and calculating the average annual order price of the magazine, and auditing the results of the report
- Coordinated peer reviews, page editing, soliciting Justice in Motion content (a monthly department of Trial), and authored the following articles:
  - Trial Magazine: Rethinking Progress, a book review of Humans as a Service: The Promise and Perils of Work in the Gig Economy
  - Trial Magazine: Reuniting Families, an interview with Texas Immigration Attorney covering U.S. border crisis
  - Trial Magazine: Surfing to Heal, an interview with South Carolina attorney covering cystic fibrosis non-profit work

The Public Affairs Council, Washington, D.C.

Intern

09/09/17 – 12/20/17

- Drafted resources for members on grassroots and grassroots advocacy by using social media tools including Facebook live
- Reported to the international relations team on public affairs in Brazil, China, and the EU
- Assisted the digital and communications practice manager with a research project to find new leads in the public affairs industry

United States Senate, Washington, D.C.

Foreign Relations Legislative Intern – Office of Senator Tammy Baldwin

08/14/16 – 12/10/16

- Attended congressional briefings and reported to legislative correspondents and aids with prepared comprehensive memos
- Led research project on U.S. health and medical companies, researched fund

allocation to foreign countries in the Senate appropriations bill, and helped identify Wisconsin veteran organizations of interest to Senator Baldwin

- Drafted response letters on various bills including: H.R. Bill 5474 Human Rights in Honduras Act, S. 2628 National EMS Memorial, The Mérida Initiative, S. Res. 506 Montenegro's accession to NATO, S. 3256 Education for All Act, H.R. 3363 Federal Wildland Firefighter Recognition Act, and S. 2596 on disabled veterans.

United Nations, New York, N.Y.

Student Representative

06/01/15 – 07/30/15

- Met with diplomats from approximately 27 different member countries to discuss current issues faced at the UN and abroad, and drafted research thesis on diplomatic intervention in conflicts between Democratic Republic of Congo and Rwanda comparatively to the Ethiopian Eritrean border crisis

Language Resource Center, Milwaukee, WI.

Supplemental Instructor & Researcher – University of Wisconsin Milwaukee

01/14/15 – 05/25/16

- Served as the university's assistant to the Polish program creating online learning materials such as flash cards and instructional videos
- Created unique content for Polish students including subtitled videos, step-by-step learning of grammatical cases, and presentations using Jing, Photoshop, iSpring, Educanon, Aegisub, and Smart Board technologies

Hold My Hand Orphanage, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Website Author and Coordinator

11/2014 – 06/015

- Authored the stories of child-labor trafficking victims brought to Addis Ababa from rural regions of Ethiopia for work
- Assisted with website creation and gave general support to those who founded the non-profit

Center for Urban Initiatives & Research, Milwaukee, WI.

Project Surveyor

11/2014 – 06/015

- Interviewed citizens from various counties in Wisconsin and the greater Milwaukee area to collect data and research for governmental institutions; gather popular opinion regarding programs and other initiatives requiring the consent of tax paying populations

Education

George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

Graduate Certificate in Geographic Information Systems and Cartography

12 credit hours – 2018-2019

University of Wisconsin Milwaukee, Milwaukee, WI

B.A. in Sociology with minor in Global Studies

Concentration on Polish Language

120 credit hours – 2014-2017

Leadership

Boren Scholar - Amharic, Ethiopia

Capital Semester Scholar - The Fund for American Studies

Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellow - Lublin, PL

At-Large Senator - UWM Student Association

Voting Rights Committee Chair - UWM

Skills

Adobe Creative Suite
Drupal
QGIS
Microsoft Office
ESRI ArcGIS Suite

R Studio Coding
HTML Coding
Python Scripting
ERDAS Imagine Analysis
Jing Screencasting

Aegisub Subtitling
BPA Brand Auditing
SPSS Statistics
CMS Database Usage
Smartboard Tech